What is it that makes you who you are?

|---------------|---|
| You will need | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Old newspapers or magazines • Glue • Scissors • A pencil |
|---------------|---|

"So, basically it's a magazine. We made it about ourselves. It includes stuff that we like to do."

ONE: How would you introduce yourself to a new person?

Think of things that you enjoy doing and words that could describe your personality.

What words come to mind?

Write down your words below:

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____
- 5) _____
- 6) _____

TWO: Fold this sheet into a zine using the template. Cut along the dashed line.

THREE: Collage each of the words you have written on each page of your zine by cutting and sticking letters. Find pictures which represent your words and add them too.

For a challenge, try not to use any pens or pencils when doing this!

FOUR: Make a front cover and complete the colophon.

A colophon goes at the back, it tells people about when and where the zine was made and who made it.

FIVE: Photocopy your zine to make an edition. How many copies you make is how big your edition is.

Try making 5 copies to swap with five different people. Why not ask them to make a zine to give you?
